FOREWORD

"The Croghan" is the expression of the Senior Class. It is the spirit of youth made wholesome. It will bless us in our later years because it mirrors the hallowed memories of our school days, the happiest days of our life.

Age and experiences in the world of action make delightful the memories aroused by reflection of school days as a jewel of old age. And what could reflect better on our school days than a book relating each experience with now and then a picture to remind us of some special event or person. In publishing "The Croghan" we have tried to make it not a passing fancy, but a book of blessed memories that will be forever cherished.

The obligations of the Senior Class are especially due Mr. Clarke, who so willingly worked with and for us, to the staff, the ticket sellers and the Carnival committees, and all others who in any way contributed to our 1925 "Croghan."

Marian L. Van Doren,
Editor in Chief.

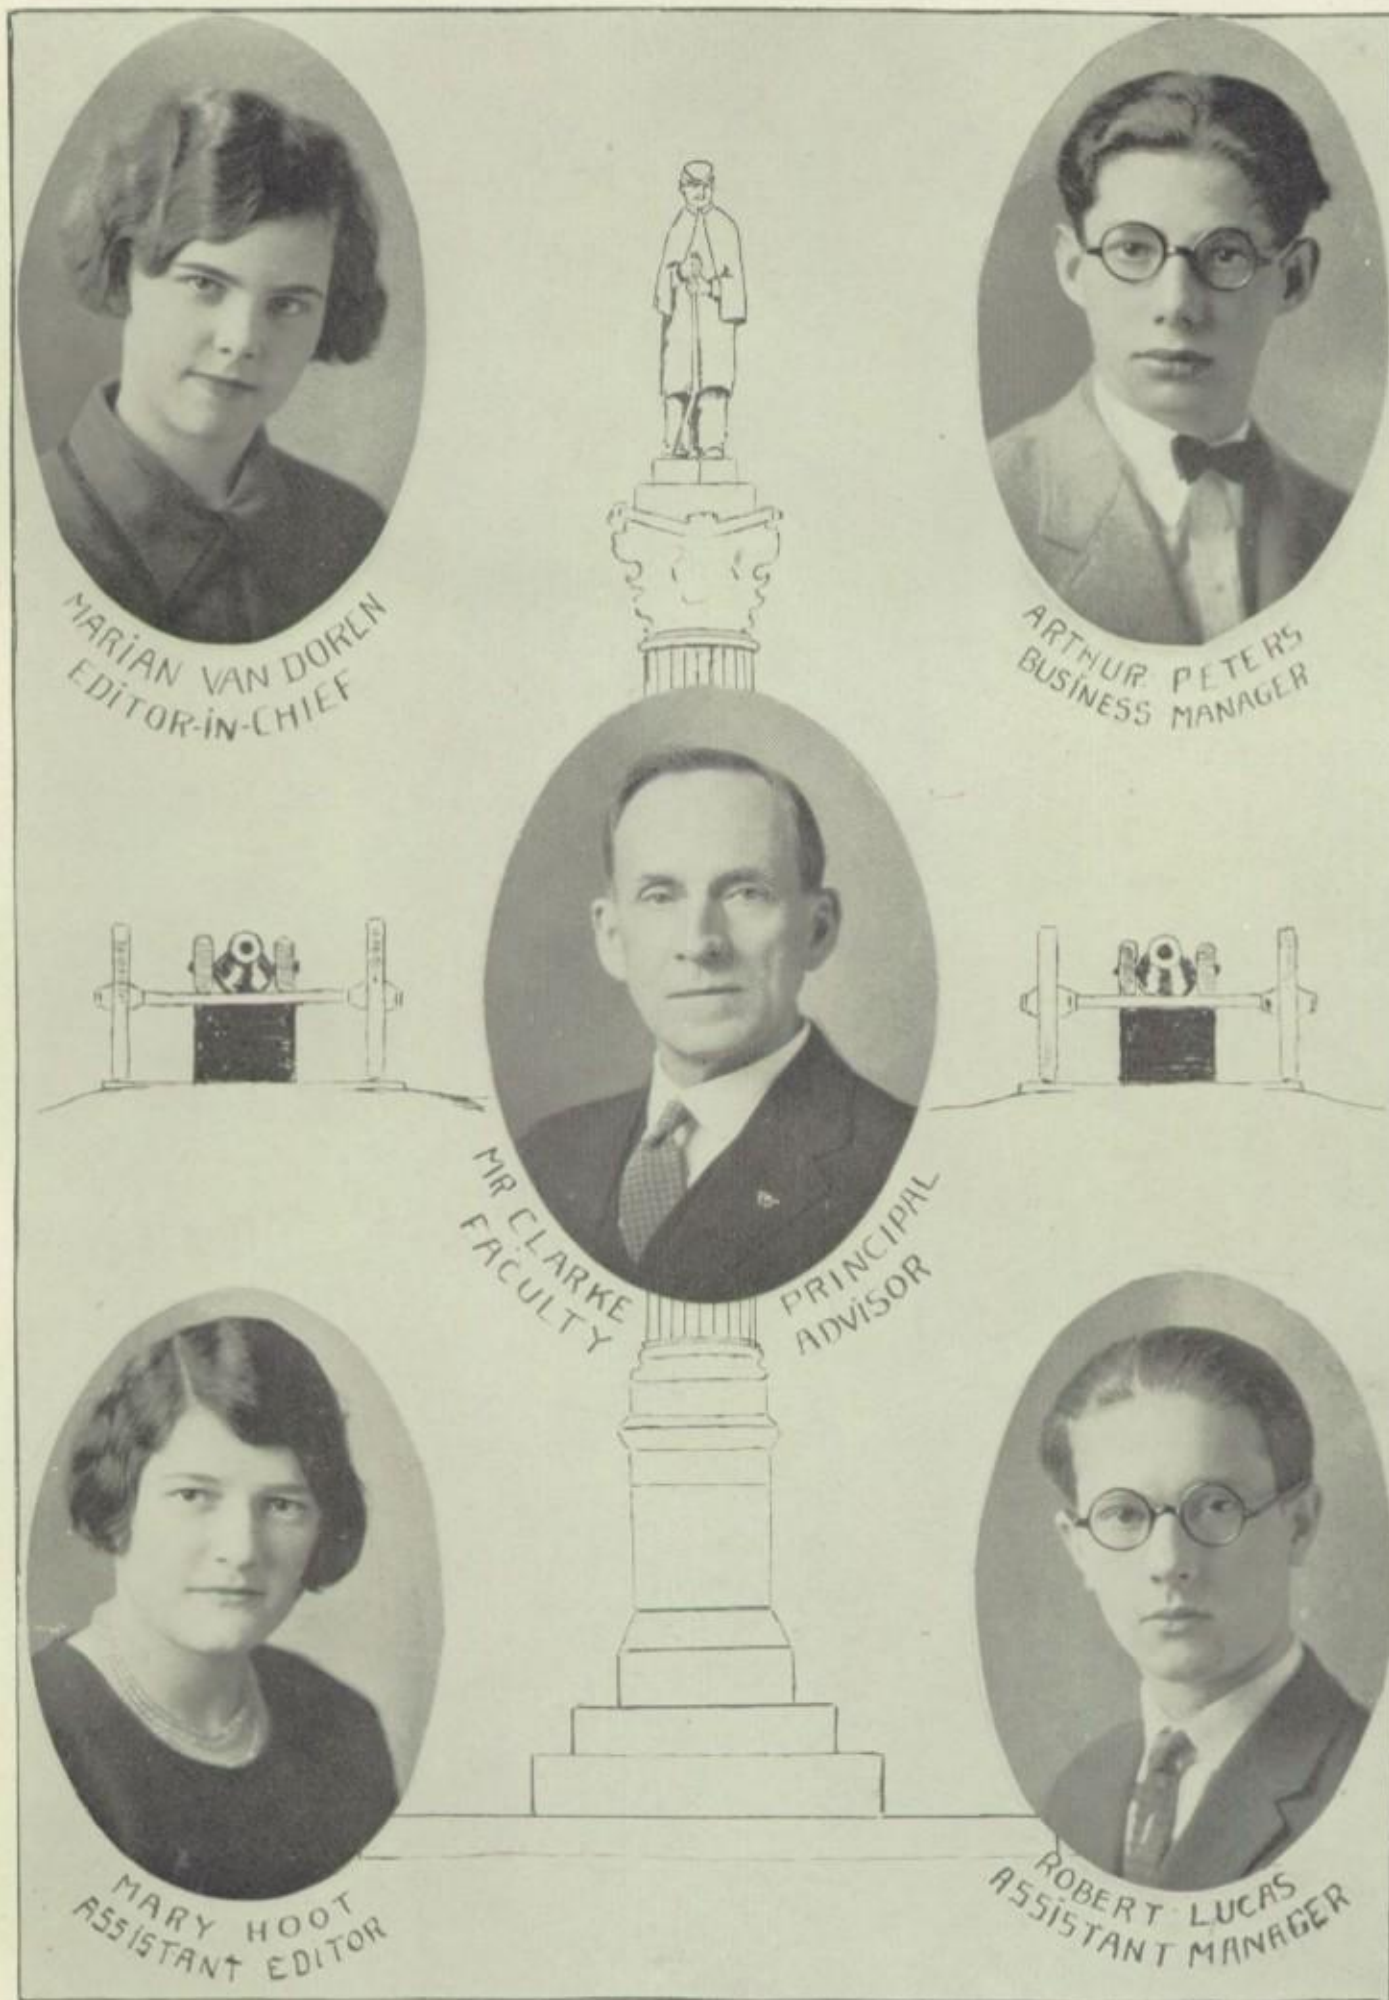

This volume is respectfully dedicated
To Mrs. Elsie Greene-Datesman,
A sincere, devoted Teacher.

GOOD FELLOWSHIP

When there's more of lifting and less
of shifting,
When there's more of cheering and less
of sneering,
When there's more of boasting and less
of knocking,
And every fellow's a sportsman true;
Then that's good fellowship.

When a Senior's smile is a Freshie's aid
When the gap 'tween the rich and poor
doth fade,
When selfishness dies and sacrifice
made
And a fellow works with a will and a way;
Then that's good fellowship.

So, remember, my friend, if you care to join
our altruistic band,
You must practice the Golden Rule and show
that you have sand,
You must carry the weaker fellow's load and lead him by the hand
And when you kick, remember it isn't the school
that's wrong—it's you
Then you'll be a good fellow, too.

—EDITH JOHNSON.

THE SEASONS

Summer is grand with verdant vines,
With weather, warm and songs of birds
And many other well marked signs,
That are too eloquent for words.

Then comes Fall with flowers so bright
And all the fields are turning brown
The leaves change colors in the night
Then frost robs each tree of its gown.

Then comes Winter with all its snow
Robes the town in wondrous beauty,
But to their work each one must go
Because they feel, it's their duty.

But when Spring comes with warm sunshine
And everyone is very glad
We like the weather all the time
For the Spring is the best we've had.

Class Poem

Dear Fremont Hi, another class
Must leave to journey on life's way;
So here's to the Class of '25,
To the Scarlet and the Gray.

Four long years we've labored onward,
Sometimes sad and sometimes gay;
Bound together one by one
With the spirit of class loyalty.

We've labored long with right good will;
To do our best has been our aim;
Now, as we go to other tasks
May we ever strive to do the same.

Yet, all the knowledge we have gained,
All the battles we have won,
We owe to our able instructors—
Honor to them, every one.

The path of learning is sometimes hard,
'Tis so easy to shirk by the way;
But we've found that to neglect our tasks
Brings sorrow and regret another day.

We gaze about us as we tread
The old familiar rooms and halls.
Will we be missed, dear F. H. S.,
When we've forever left these walls?

Will some good have been accomplished
By our wills and efforts strong
To live as a fair example
Of our class, when we are gone?

Life's great school is calling us,
There's much yet to be done.
For these are the words of our motto fair,
"Not finished, only begun."

Farewell, dear High School of our youth,
To thy memory we'll be true—
Take the tribute that we pay to you
As we bid you a fond adieu.

—Dorothy House.

Senior Class History

Another year has rolled by, and the month of May marks the passing of another class from the realm of High School life. For we, the Class of 1925, now bid farewell to F. H. S. But before we have left behind us our High School Days, let us take one backward glance over the past four years.

Little was accomplished in our Freshman year, as we were not yet included in Senior High. Nevertheless, we looked eagerly forward to the future three years, when we might take part in the various activities of Senior High.

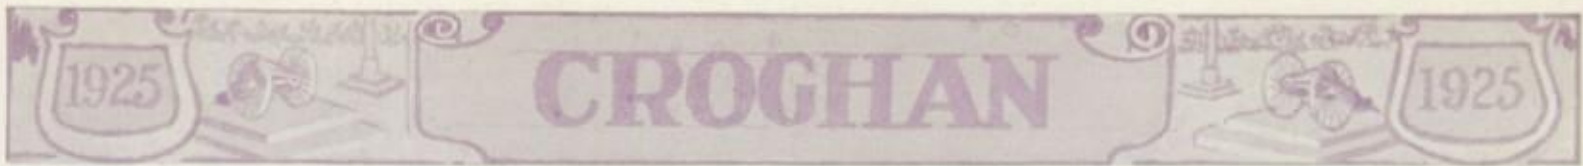

We entered our second year with much enthusiasm, as each member realized that he was no longer a Freshman but a worthy Sophomore. We were well represented in all activities including athletics, musical organizations and the Dramatic Club. On the whole, our Sophomore year was a very successful one.

The next year we were back again as Jolly Juniors, and we tried in every way to live up to that dignified title. We made great strides in all social affairs, coming to the front in athletics. The "Ninety Club" was organized, bringing Honor to many Juniors. Near the close of the year the Fremont High School Banking System was established. The Junior-Senior Picnic marked the end of the term.

And now we have reached our Senior year, the goal to which we have long striven to attain. We have certainly appreciated the newly completed additions to our buildings, especially the fine large gymnasium. Our Senior year has been the busiest of all, we have labored diligently, and we hope our efforts have not been in vain. We have made mistakes, but, as the old philosopher said, "Our greatest glory is not in never falling; but in rising every time we fall." We hope that when the Class of '25 passes on into the greater school of life they will do as well as they have done in Fremont High School.

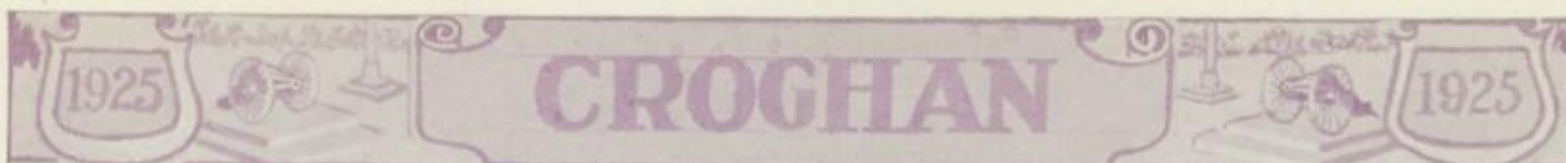

And so—with our kindest thoughts for the students and faculty of F. H. S.—the Class of 1925 bids

FAREWELL.

Our High School

F rom your portals dear old High School,
R egretfully we must go our way
E ver treasuring in our hearts,
M emories of happy days.
O nward, onward toward the goal
N ever failing truth and right
T his the lesson you have taught us,
H onor to the purple and white!
I nspiring us to higher motives
G uiding ever toward the light
H onor to the purple and glory to the white.

Class Will

We, the Class of '25, residing in the city of Fremont, of the State of Ohio, being under control of a mind free from all hilarity and somnambulism, do hereby bequeath to the best of our judicial sense, the cherished possessions to which we have attained, but through brotherly love do bestow them upon those desiring to reach our heights.

We, bequeath with our most sincere blessing the memorals (placed in the school by us) to the school which has played its great part in constructing our future.

To the teachers it is our great pleasure to give the hour periods, we have given this much consideration and we hope that they will be appreciated and made use of.

To the coming classes, we leave our schemes and blue-prints showing how to co-operate cheerfully and honorably in conducting successful classes.

To our nearest relative, the Class of '26, we have founded a basis for a School Municipal Government and it is this foundation that we place in their hands hoping that they will seriously and diligently do their best in making it one of the most useful organizations in the school.

To the Sophomores we leave our feelings of good will and cheerfulness to be improved upon to the best of their ability.

To the Freshmen we bequeath that for which we have strived and worked these last four years. The standards and ambitions of the Class of '25, to be used as their ideals—no improvements can be added by Freshmen.

Some of our dear departing brethern, through love and good wishes, since they find all cannot be taken with them, bequeath the following cherished possessions:

Robert Lease thinks that as a remembrance it is his duty to leave his chewing gum (or at least half of it) with Miss Lutz, who, he is sure, will take good care of the same for him.

Eleanor Hunsinger wishes to leave her place as 'class orator' to Jessie Walters, who, she thinks, will take up arguments where she left off.

Hank Bauman finds that he cannot keep his heart, so he wishes to leave it with one of the young ladies in the Junior Class. (We wonder who.)

George Engler leaves his joke book in the hands of Walter Oxley. We know Walter will appreciate this very much.

Grant Rinehart has a very good copy of "Secrets of Obtaining Beauty"—Jack Mallon is to be the fortunate receiver.

Walter Nickel leaves his most trusty Dictionary, from which he obtains his extensive vocabulary, to Kenneth Farrel.

Urban Fox leaves his razor for Oliver Thrun. Hotch says that he will not need it after he graduates.

Robert Miller would like to leave his tardy record, but he thinks that he may be able to raise the figures some after he leaves school.

Bud Bowlus will confide his secrets of "How to Win a Woman's Love" to anyone interested.

Russel Baker bequeaths his magaphone to Mrs. Keenan. This is to be used in quelling riots in the Study Hall.

Leola Miller has considerable literature on the latest styles from Paris. This is to be given to Miss Cockerill. We know she will appreciate Leola's thoughtfulness.

Thus it is; we now leave our dear old F. H. S. behind us forever as a foundation upon which we started but we take with us a thousand memories which will remain dear to us throughout life. We hope that we have accomplished in our High School career so that the name of our class shall never die in the echoes, as long as one hall remains whole.

This Will was drawn together by

We, the undersigned, testify as witnesses for the said Will, this day of May 7, 1925.

Diary

May 24, 1945.

Dear Dairy:—

How time flies! We haven't read thru your pages since we were Seniors in F. H. S. Dear old F. H. S. We wonder where all our classmates are now. Just today we decided to take a vacation from our social welfare work and visit our old home town, scene of our graduation.

May 27, 1945

Dear Diary:—

Tired; just arrived. Down on Front Street saw Bud Bowlus demonstrating chest supporters. We noticed a fashionable tea room and being hungry, went in. We recognized the proprietor as Frances Lance. "Where is the rest of the gang?" They're scattered far and wide. Lealia Gores has recently taken over the management of that department store across the way. Bertha Mielke runs an ostrich farm west of town."

A well dressed man came in. "Do you recognize him?" she whispered. "That's Stan Hawk, and he has broken many hearts in his day." You remember Mickey and Joe, well you can guess, it's still Mickey and Joe. If you go to a theatre tonight, you'll see Ted Karchner and Ethel Brown, the noted dancing partners, and also Lawrence Heineman as the tenor soloist."

The place was filling with customers so we left, promising to drop in again. We made our way to a hotel, and who should we see by Hermie S. coming down the street, propelling a baby carriage. We asked him if he had become a bootlegger, 'er what?"

Later we were in the hotel lobby with newspapers and magazines. The headlines of the New York Tribune caught our eyes. "Speaker of House Introduces Big Bill to Regulate Increasing Air Traffic." We found the speaker to be none other than Harry Comesky, his wife, formerly Evelyn W., was also spoken of in connection with his rising prominence.

The Scientific News relates that Hank B. had discovered the greatest explosive yet known—by accident. Poor Hank, we imagine he is a nervous wreck. Also noticed an article in the medical section stating that Dr. Bob Lease, the great surgeon for installing monkey glands, guarantees internal youth. And Bob Nickle, the great psychologist, has proven the astounding theory that "When a Man Is, He Isn't"—good for Bob.

Another was that Hotch F., the noted chemist of the age, discovered that gold can really be obtained from sulphur. Then we remembered his fondness for sulphur in high school days.

Turning to the theatre news, read that Melvin G. and his company of supple Hula Wonders are scoring a hit on Broadway this season. The screen news related that Grant R., the popular matinee idol, has found his way into the hearts of all the fairer sex with his burning eyes and classic love-making. Another interesting notice—"Don Smith, the great movie director, has just finished directing his super production, 'Why Dogs Leave Home,' written by the famous scenario writer, MaJar Wingard."

Well, lets call it a day. Sweet dreams.

May 28, 1945

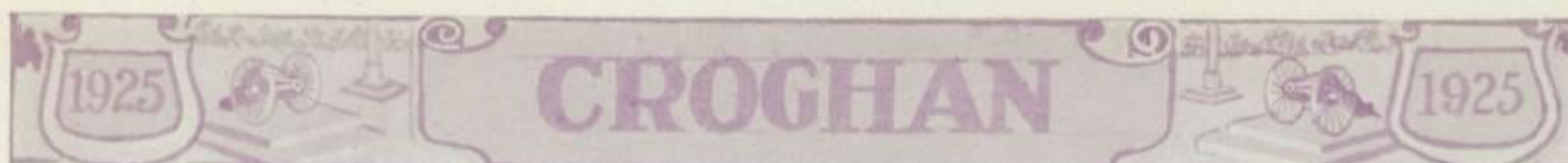

Dear Diary:—

Well here's another day so, curious to hear news, decided to "do" the town. We met Walter Voss, sauntering down Croghan Street, and he is some sheik.

Here's another shock—saw Judy L. and his little wife, shopping down town. He looked like Santa Claus himself.

We visited the filtration plant near where Ballville used to be. Fremont has one at last, under the management of Russell. He took us thru it. He told us that Eloise Adams had gone back to the home of her youth. She is doing well in the cattle business.

Chifton Schaaf is running a big Chinese laundry in San Francisco; Leilia Rohr, Edith Johnson and Mildred Foster are competent nurses in a great hospital for homesick sailors on the Canary Islands. Also Dorothy Doll is a famous chiropractor. Harriet Beatty is married and lives on Long Island; Rex Clarke has an institution for bugs, where all diseases and peculiar spots are studied. Bob Lucas is a professor of a girls' academy—rather surprising. Also, Dorothy Fisher leads a life of single blessedness in a cottage down by the Bay. Decided to visit her, thinking perhaps she could tell us the fate of the rest of the old gang. We found her installed comfortable, with a cat, parrot, radio, 'en everything.

Over the tea cups she told us that Elizabeth and Esther Jones are considered the second Dolly Sisters.

Frances and Fat are married, and at present are on a tour around the world. Delphin Gibbs, the Clarinetist, broadcasts from Jupiter on clear nights. LeRoy Henne and his pardner, Bernice Immel, are conducting evangelistic meetings in Madagascar.

Eleanor H. is physical director at Sweet Briar, and Leola M. (you will never believe it) is doing missionary work in Siberia. Margaret Paul is a novelist. Her latest book is "How to Train the Husband." Harry Neer, her better half, helps her in her work.

Bob Sackett is a famous orator, who talks on the "The Fijis and Democracy." Milton Carney is a great engineer. Shorty Engler composes nursery rhymes for tiny tots. They rival "Mother Goose."

Harold Nitschke has won many cups for aviation stunts; and Walter Nickel is now president of the Orphans Association.

It was getting late so we hurried back to the hotel to dress for a dinner party, given by Shirley Overmyer. Had a wonderful time. Shirley is some hostess.

That's all for today.

May 29, 1945

Dear Diary:—

Horrid day, just poured every minute. Had to sit in the lobby all day. About three o'clock an artistic looking man blew in out of the rain. Walking up to the desk, registered in a loud gruff voice as Mr. Don Pasch. Was quite a stir in the lobby. Everyone craned their necks. The woman next to us whispered, "Just think, that is the artist, Pasch, called the second Michael Aneglo. Have you seen his latest masterpiece, 'Angel Faces'?" Had to confess we hadn't.

Looking over magazines found that Iva Zeigler makes models of pre-historic man and animals for great museums. Iva Rafferty is living in Seville. Her ravishing beauty has been the delight and despair of countless Spanish Dons.

Webb Reardon, disgusted with life and love, has retired to the African jungles some ten years ago, and has proven the Darwinian theory O. K. Humpy Campbell poses for Velvet Grip, garter advertisements. Arvilla Ehlers is a plastic surgeon. Her slogan is "Lift Up Thy Face And Be Young." Saw in a beauty column that Emma H. discovered a quince juice lotion for keeping straight hair in curl for ten days.

Decided to retire early. Ho Hum'

May 30, 1945.

Dear Diary:—

Beautiful day. Went up to the library this morning. There was Maude D. conducting the children's hour. When she finished, we sat down for a chat. "I suppose you wonder what has become of everyone. Dan Reardon was appointed Poet Laureate of Iceland. Quite remarkable, but Dan always was poetical. Lola O. also writes such lovely verse of nature's beauty. We have a book here called 'Diets for Children and Animals,' written by Marian V. D. E. Christy is world's champion tennis player. Poor Avis; she's still teaching in the Ozark Mts., she's engaged now. Helen S. is a nurse trying to locate an elderly gentleman with a cough and a fat pocketbook. Have you heard about Marie N.? She's Monsieur H. Druckenmillaire's model in his smart shoppe on the Rue de la Plaise. Roberta Lee is married to a lawyer and lives in Washington, D. C. Warren S. invented a device for preventing sleep walking; and Gordon has been raised to the position of High Exalted Ruler of Magic Moonshiners of Mars.

"Merrell has lately excavated a perfect specimen of the extinct dodo in the Isle of Pines. Arthur is a great explorer and salesman, making a cool million each year selling electric fans and straw hats to the Eskimoes.

"There is a new dictionary out now, written by Lowell. Webster made a few mistakes, so Lowell says. Dale McCreery's Advice to the Lovelorn appears nightly in a western journal; and Gladine J. sails the ocean blue with her sailor husband."

Well, dear diary, have heard lots of news today.

May 31, 1945.

Dear Diary:—

Just read that Jenny is running for President on the Shifty Grabbers ticket. Betty is her campaign manager. Wava was married yesterday to the Egg Beater King.

Visited the court house this afternoon. Fremont still has the old one. Went to a trial, and sitting on the judge's bench was Ruth W. After court, went up to greet her. She told us Dorothy S. has just finished "Juliet" on the N. Y. Stage. Iva S. was crowned "Queen of the May" at Greenwich Village festival. "I suppose you've heard that Kate Auxter is a second 'Sherlock Holmes,' her last famous case was 'The Woman in Black.'"

Ruth B. and Velma have been married. Their bridal bouquets were from Lauretta's greenhouse. Clyde has a harem in Turkey. Walter S. is a great coffee king in Brazil, and Howard K. wrote a pamphlet entitled "Is the Wife a Nuisance Around the House." John M. is in the hauling business. Donald is a pirate in the North Seas. Bob M. runs a helium station between the earth and Venus. Harry K. is a guide in the Swiss Alps.

Helen K. runs a snow plow daily across the hot snow of the Sahara, and Thelma K. teaches French to Cannibals in Africa. Corrine manages an olive press near Naples, and Juanita has a fish hatchery in Alaska. Evelyn Knause runs a soft drink parlor in Burmuda.

Decided to look up our old principal, "Daddy." He still lives where he did in high school days, but is very old. Was delighted to see us. It was from him that we gained our remaining information of the gang of '25.

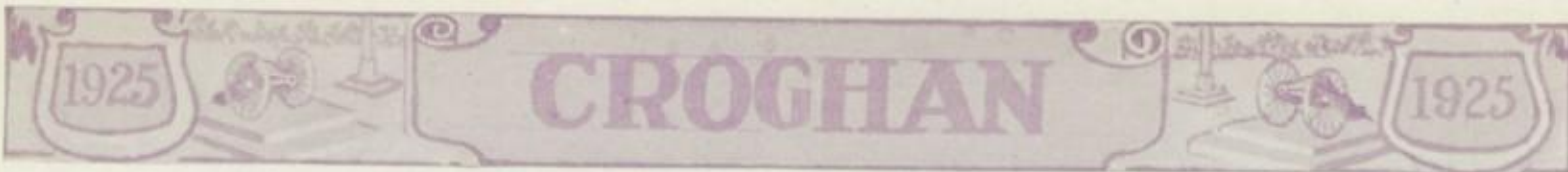

He told us that Mildred B. writes household articles on "The Art of Brickmaking." Mabel O. poses for becoming styles for women. Mildred Z. is seen in the ads for "non-slip" hosiery. Mary H. is a noted beauty specialist. In the "Illiterate Indigest" noticed that Bernice K. has introduced a bill for drafting women into the army. Wilma created a sensation in Wall Street by cornering the can opener stock. Mildred S., noted botanist, has discovered a preventative for spots on leopard plants. Leora invented the philoponmeter for viewing sound waves. Ruth Homler's stirring oration appeared in the Clyde Enterprise, and Margaret G. is doing fine work for the Salvation Army in Haiti.

Elaine L., famous astronomer, discovered another planet that revolves close to the earth.

Last, but not least, he told us of the "Old Maids Protective League" of Fremont. The President is Mary Hoot, and among the members are Dorothy Heflinger, Mauvelyn and Bessie, Christine, Vivian, Hilda, Nettie, Eva May, and Theresa. The membership is for life, and their slogan is, "Males, Minus Quantity."

Our quest is over and all is well on the Sandusky.

LAVORA PLEADWELL,
DOROTHY HOUSE.

The Ninety Club of the Fremont High Schools

Organized at the end of the First Semester of the Year 1923-24.

MEMBERSHIP

The members of the "Ninety-Club" of the Fremont High Schools shall be those pupils who shall average 90 or more in four or more regularly offered subjects for a whole semester. Each of these subjects must merit one-half credit for each semester's work, or one credit for a whole year's work. All averages to be computed for each semester.

Pupils must also have been credited by each of their teachers in "Attitude toward work in Class," with an "E" or a "G" to obtain membership in this club. A marking by an "F" or a "U" will bar any pupil from membership in any semester, no matter what the average may be.

In addition to the above qualifications, each pupil must be recommended by each of his or her teachers. These recommendations must be based upon the pupil's every school activity and associations as well as upon class work.

The membership will be composed of two classes, namely, Honorary and Active.

The Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors who shall average 90 or more for less than four semesters shall be the Honorary Members of the Club and may attend all meetings of the Club, and may take part in all the social and other affairs of the Club excepting the business during the semesters following their obtaining membership. All the business of the Club shall be performed by the Active Members of the Club.

All Seniors hereafter who have averaged 90 or more for four out of the six semesters in the Senior High School courses, shall be the Active Members of the Club. The Active Members shall conduct the business and other affairs of the Club such as electing officers, collecting money, expenditures, and other matters of like import.

After graduation, all Active Members shall become Life Active Members, permitted to attend all meetings of the Club, but will lose their right to vote.

REWARDS

I. The names of all those who make the "Ninety-Club" each year will be printed in the Croghan in two lists—Active and Honorary.

II. The letter insignia "NC" may be presented to all those who make the Club for fewer than four semesters, and may be worn by such pupils at all times.

III. The Active Members of the Club may obtain and wear the pin especially designed as the emblem of their membership. No Honorary Member may wear this pin.

IV. The insignia "NC" and the pin shall be prescribed by the vote of the Active Members of the Club.

THE NINETY CLUB

"ADVICE TO JUNIORS"

It's easy to stop and rest,
 And to let others do your part,
 But the student the world loves best,
 Is the one with a fighting heart.
 Never say 'quit'—it's a sin,
 The best you can do is to try;
 The student who always will win
 Is the one that never says 'die.'

R. B.

"FREMONT HIGH"

Fremont Hi was Fremont Hi
 When all the rest were pups;
 Fremont Hi will be Fremont Hi
 When all the rest are gobbled up;
 Of all the schools
 From East to West,
 We'll sing the Rollicking chorus,
 "Fremont Hi's the best."

R. B.

"A SCHOOL RUMOR"

Absolute knowledge I have none
 But my aunt's washwoman's sisters son
 Heard a policeman on his beat
 Say to a laborer in the street,
 That he had a letter just last week
 Written in the finest Greek,
 That a Chinese cooly in Timbucktoo,
 Who said that the negroes in Cuba knew
 Of a colored man in Texas town
 Who got it straight from a circus clown,
 That a man in Borneo claimed to know
 Of a swell female society rake
 Had a mother-in-law who would undertake
 To prove that her seventh husband's sister's niece
 Had stated in a printed piece
 That she had a son who had a friend
 That knew when this class was going to graduate.

R. B.

LEADERSHIP

Everyone would like to be
 The leader of his day,
 But to get this place is hard
 And harder yet to stay.
 With critics here and critics there
 And enemies, they're everywhere,
 The person who would lead the rest
 Should be with strength and zeal possessed.
 Now shall we knock or shall we praise
 The leaders of our school?
 The answer you'll know how to find,
 It is the golden rule.

Mock Municipal Government

During the year 1925 a mock municipal government was organized and conducted by the Senior Class. The American History Classes represented the community and were divided into four wards, each member being a resident in his respective ward. Two parties were formed, Progressive and Conservative.

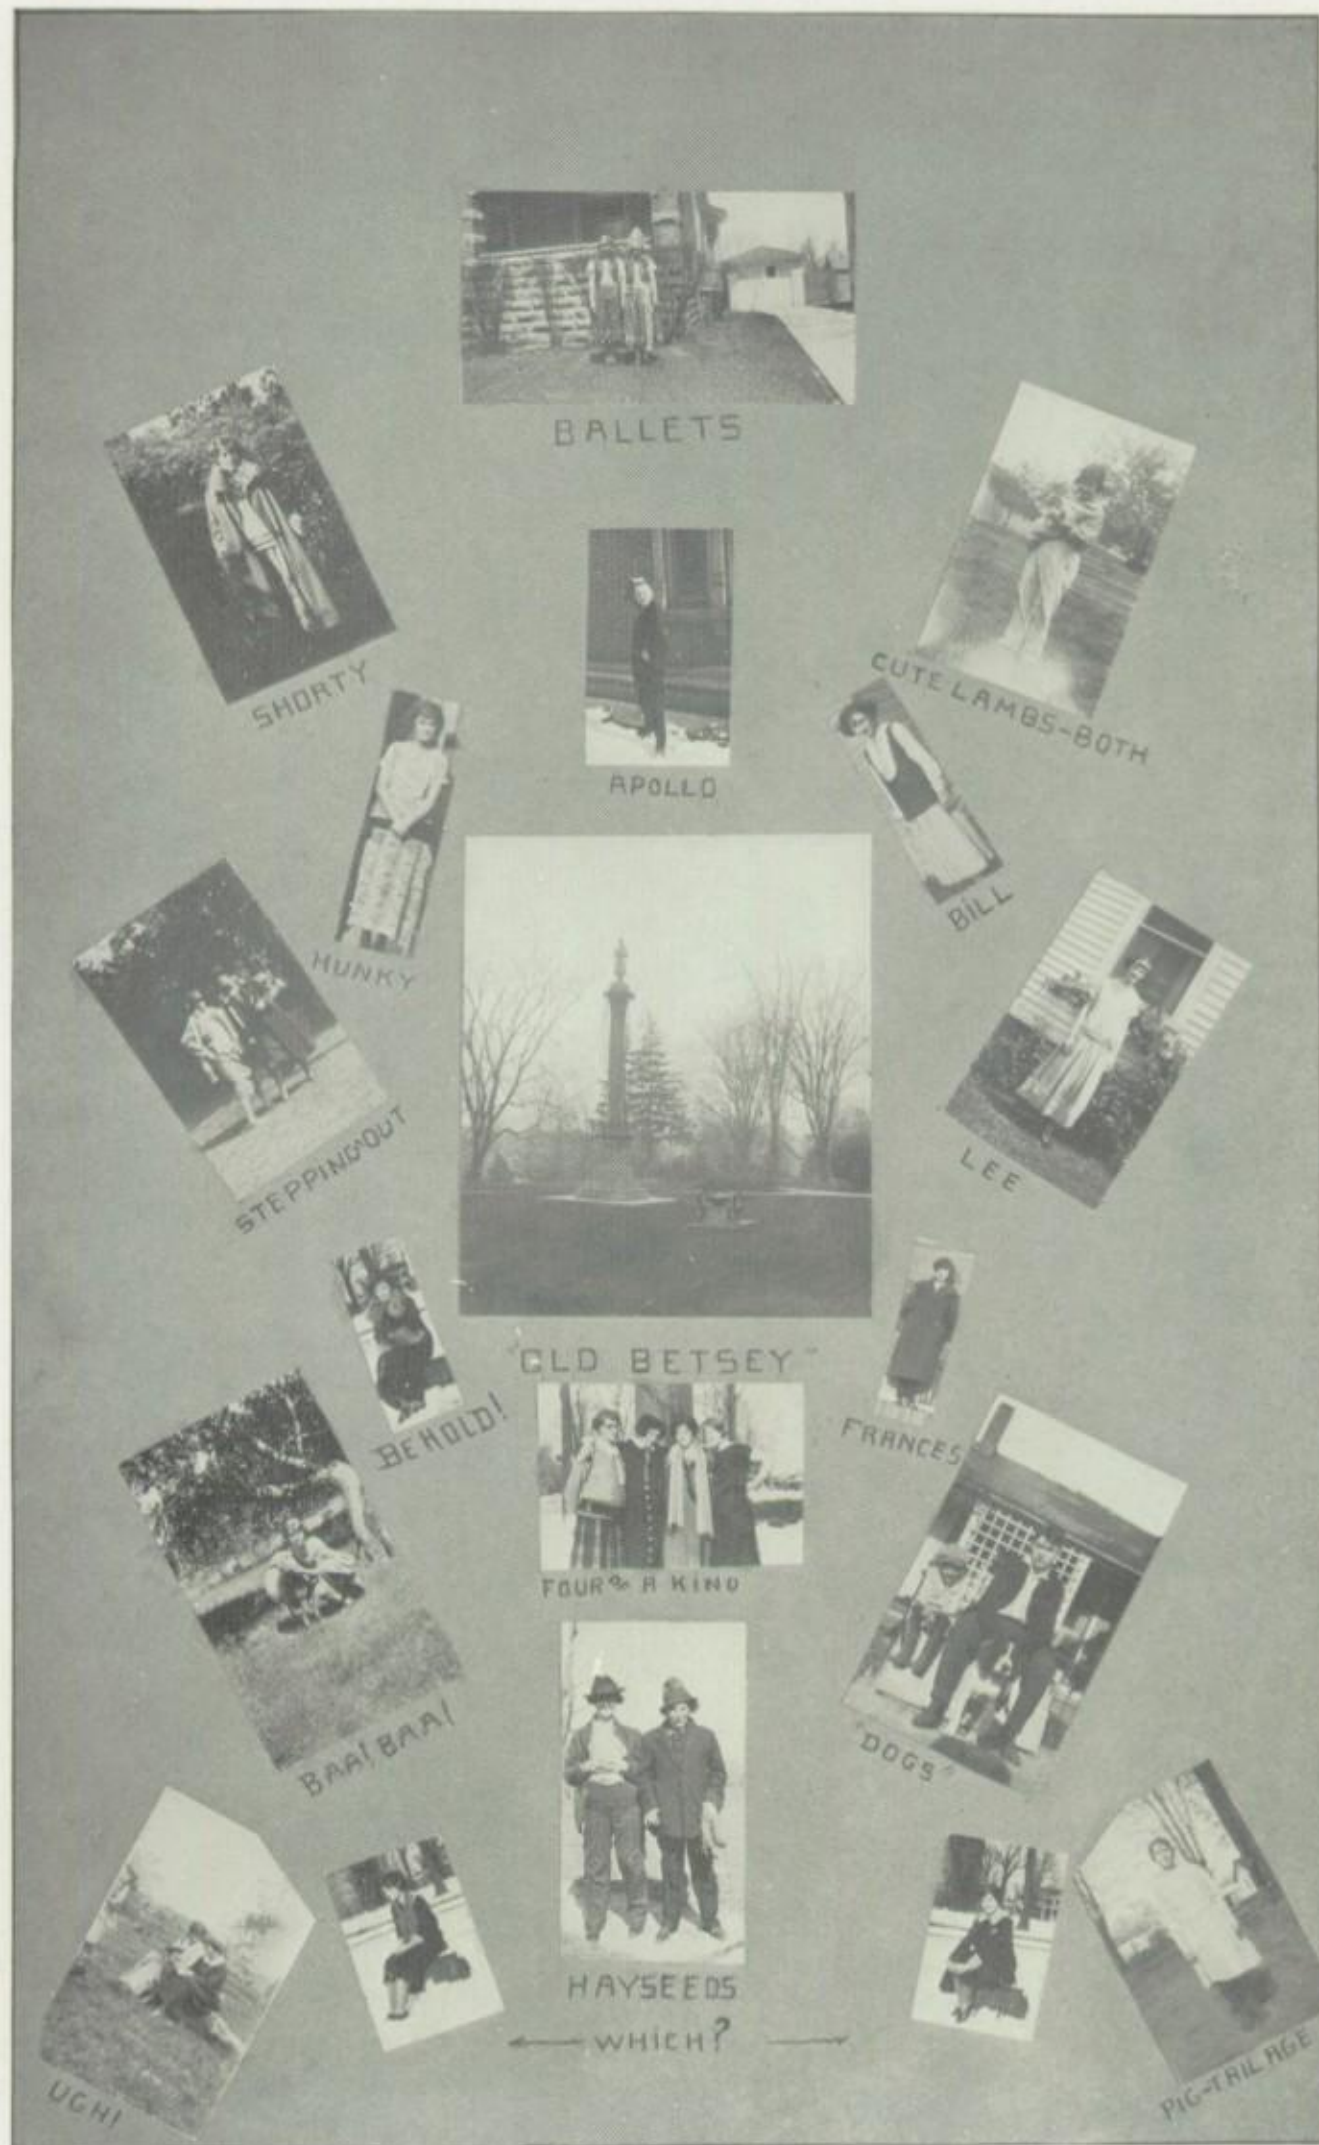

Each citizen registered and voted in both the primary and general elections for the different candidates for office. The history room was converted into an election booth for the occasion. Judges were appointed to preside over each procedure.

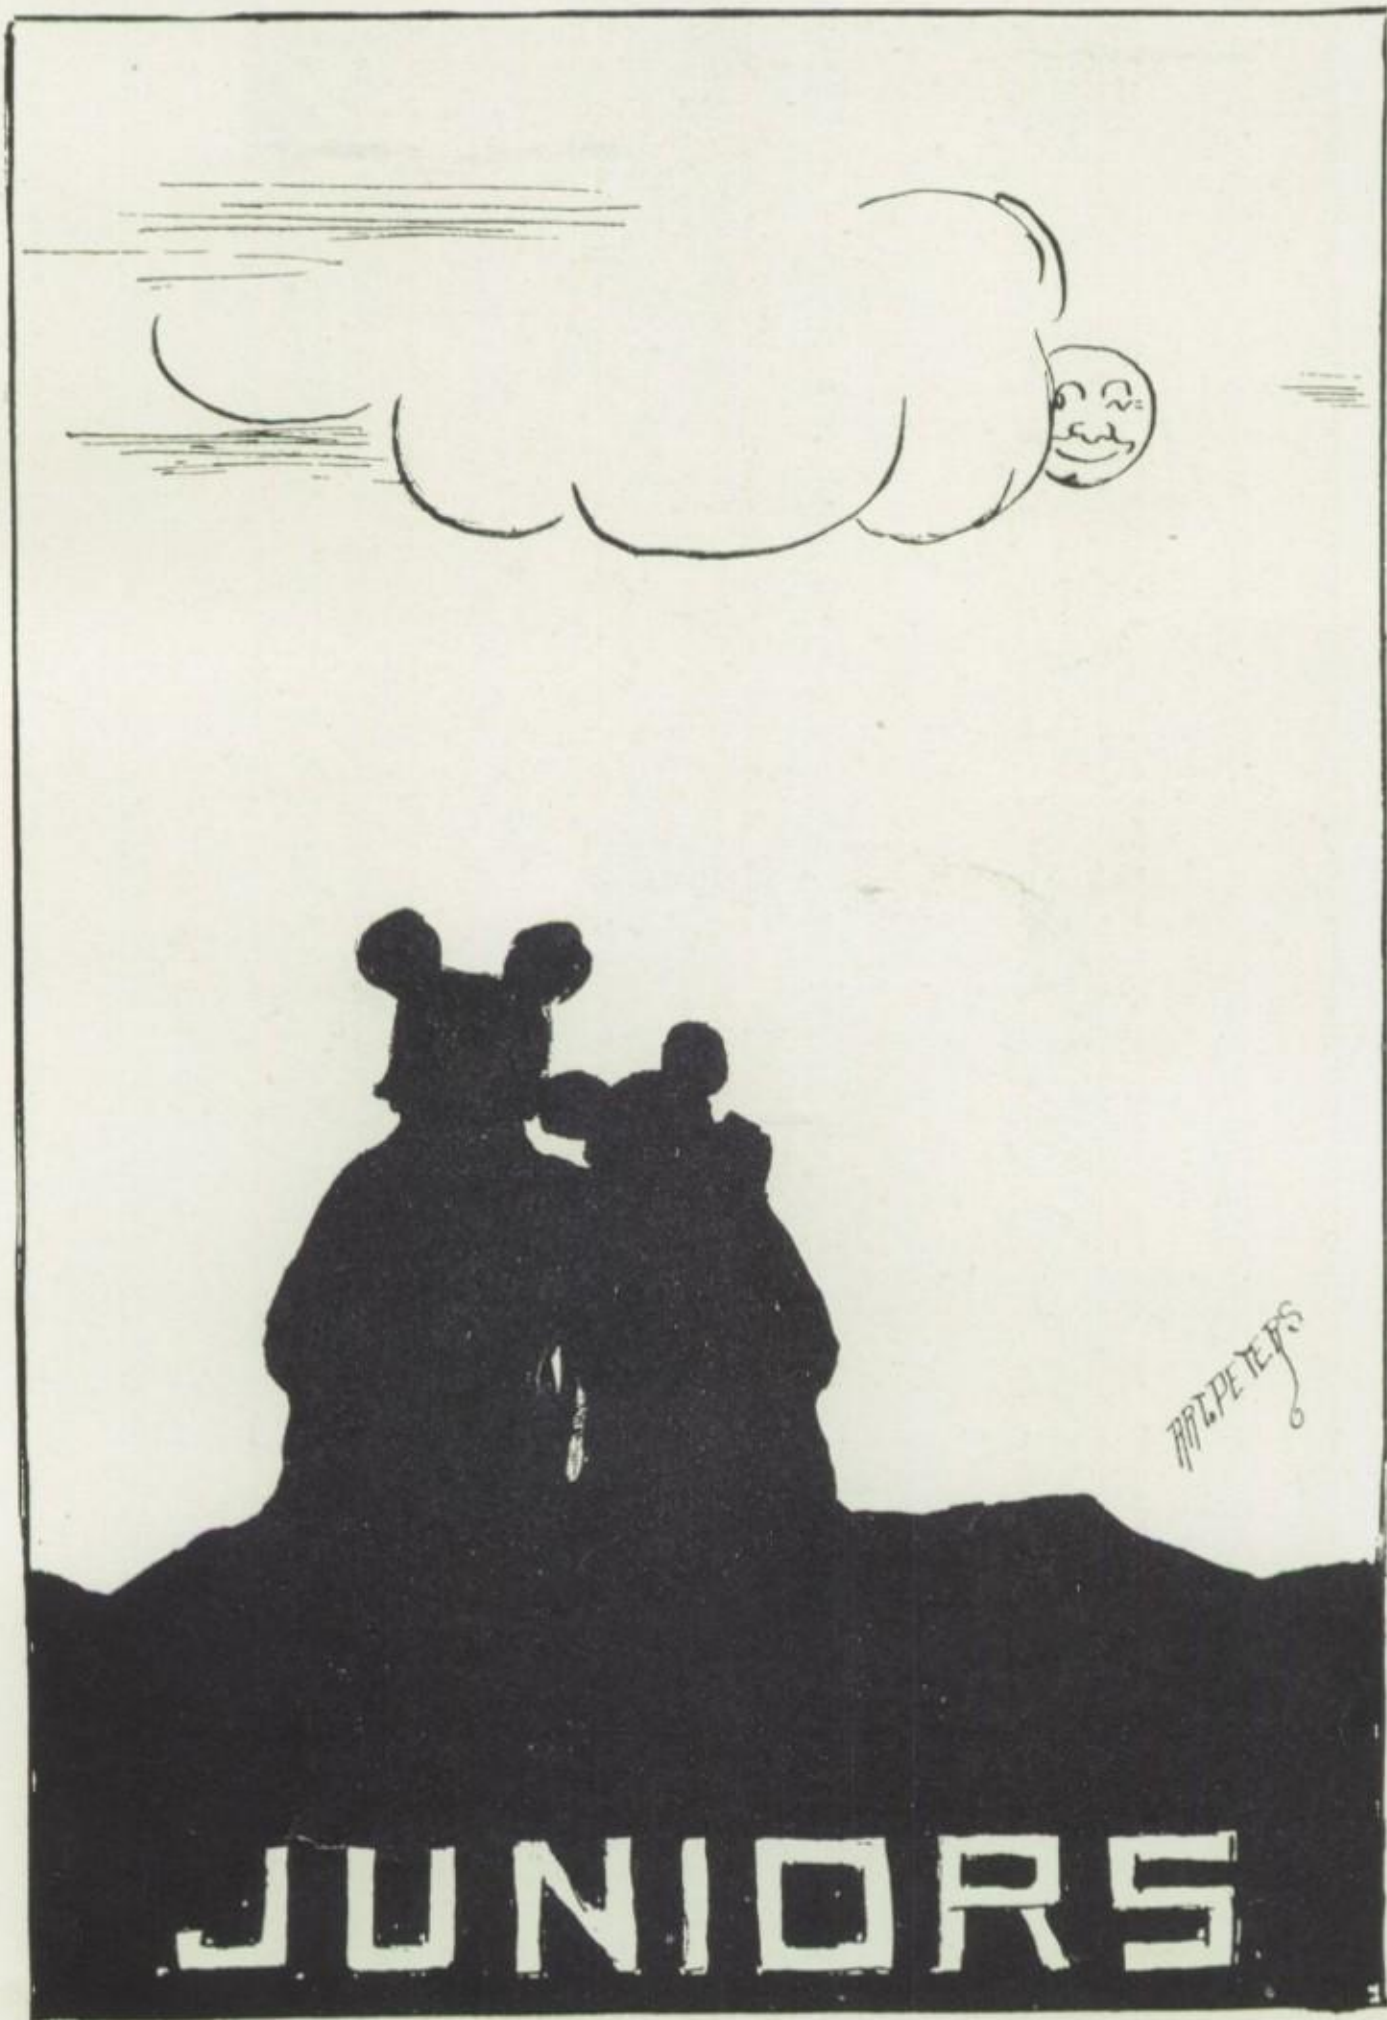

Rallies were held in the auditorium in which the candidates for office presented their platforms. The results of the general election gave the Conservatives the majority in the council. Robert Sackett was elected Mayor; Stan Hawk, President of Council; Thelma Keiser, Delphin Gibbs and Walter Nickle, Councilmen-at-large; Donald Joseph, Councilman for first ward; Harry Neer, second ward; Dan Campbell, third ward; Lealia Gores, fourth ward.

The following appointments were made by Mayor Sackett and approved by the Council: Jenny Cook, Safety Service Director; Kenneth Farrell, Chief of Police; Harley Druckenmiller, Ted Karchner, Edith Johnson and Marie Nunamaker, police in the various wards. President of Council Hawk, appointed a committee on premises, on conduct and on order. Robert Lucas was made clerk of the council. The community consisted of members of the council. General laws were passed by the council and approved by Mayor Sackett and placed upon the statute books.

All apprehended law breakers and offenders were arrested and tried before a Mayor's Court, held in the auditorium, warrants first having been issued for their arrest.

Class of '26

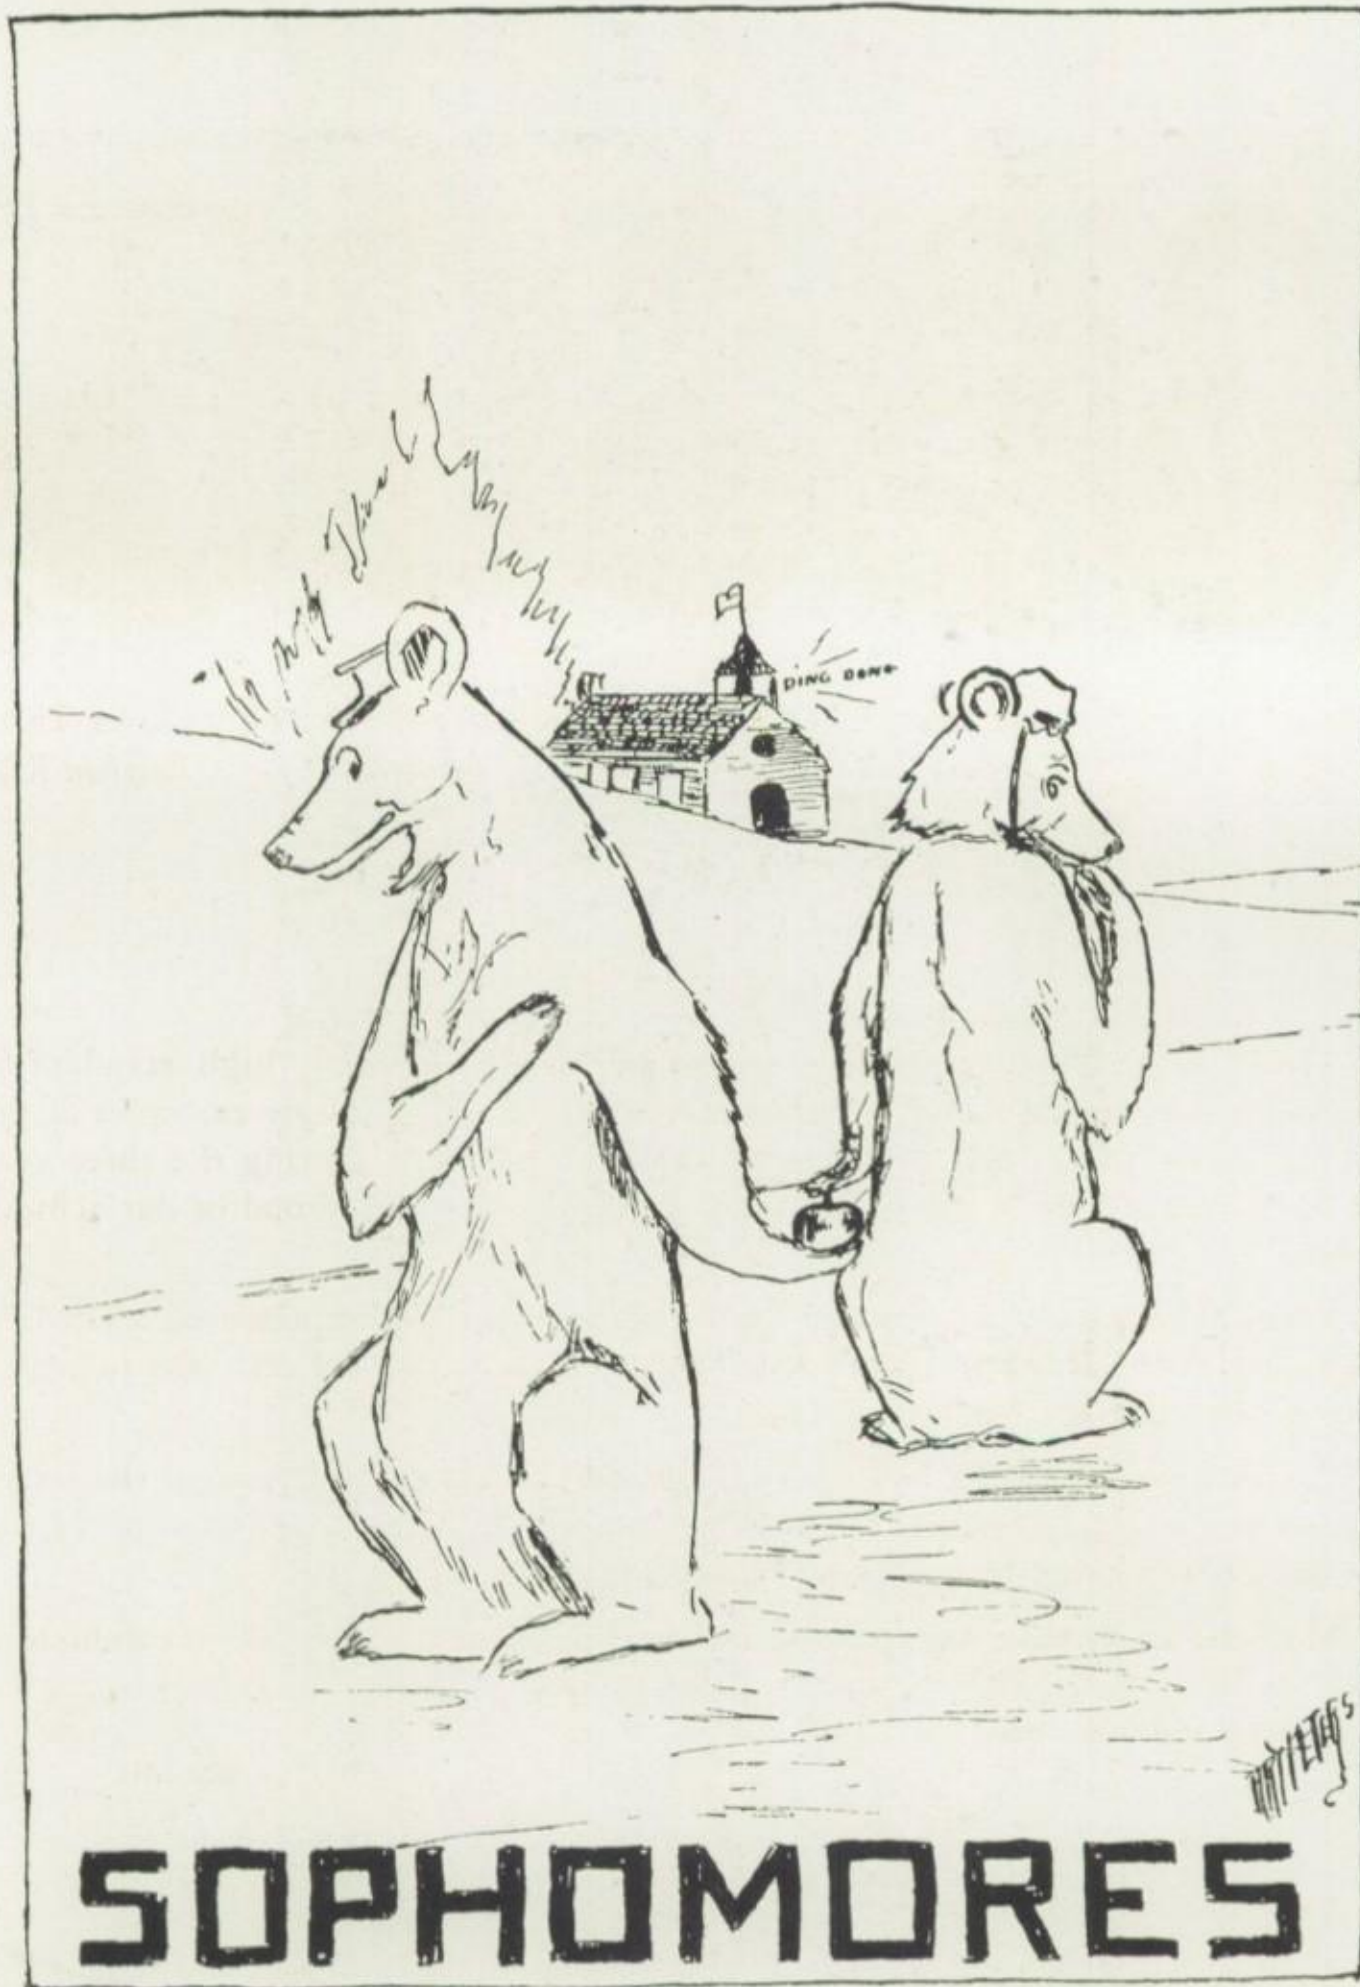

The Class of '26 in all its achievements has indeed set a very high standard for the under-classmen to follow. It has not been content to follow examples of preceding classes, but is ever profiting by others' mistakes. During the three years we have been a part of the High School we have been very proud of our achievements.

In social activities, the Class of '26 has been always well represented. The Glee Club, Dramatics, National Honor Society, Athletics, and school activities in general have never found the Juniors lacking.

We are proud of our athletic prowess, for on the Juniors is dependent the success of next year's team. As an example of our athletic superiority, the Class of '26 won the basketball championship of the school.

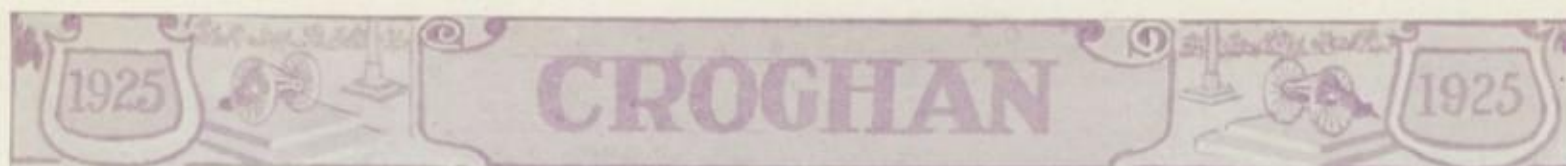

May the spirit that has thus far carried the Juniors to success predominate so that the Junior Class will be able to graduate next with a wave of supremacy and be a credit and a devoted body to F. H. S.

The Class of '27

One year we were "Freshies,"
 Too well do we know,
 But now we are "Sophs,"
 So on let us go.
 There's no royal road
 To the summit of fame;
 It's pulling and plugging
 In winning this game.
 The best operation
 Is co-operation
 Twixt teacher and scholar
 In reaching this goal.
 We'll hitch to a star
 Our wagon or car;
 WE're bound for Success,
 Our name's on the role.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club

Last year when the Class of '24 left F. H. S., the Dramatic Club was composed of only twenty-one members, but when new members were tried for admittance we found ourselves a club of forty-two members. With this new talent and material added we set out to put on the best Dramatic Club plays ever given in F. H. S. Under the splendid direction of Miss Robinson, two excellent plays were presented. The ability of the club was highly complimented by those who attended.

As a gift to Fremont Hi, the Dramatic Club of 1925, gave a set of new scenery for the High School Auditorium. Inspired by the success of the present club the remaining members will carry on the newly begun work, altho many of its members will leave F. H. S. with the class of 1925.

Class Play

"COME OUT OF THE KITCHEN"

"Come out of the Kitchen" is a charming comedy in three acts, written by Alice Duer Miller.

The story is written around a Virginia family of the old aristocracy by the name of Dangerfield, who, finding themselves temporarily embarrassed, decide to rent their home to a rich Yankee. One of the conditions of the lease stipulated that a competent staff of white servants should be engaged for his sojourn at this stately home. This servant question presented practically unsurmountable difficulties, and one of the daughters of the family conceives the mad-cap idea that she, her sister and two brothers shall act as the domestic staff for the wealthy Yankee.

Olivia Dangerfield, who is ring leader in the merry scheme, adopts the cognomen of Jane Allen, and elects to preside over the destinies of the kitchen. Her sister, Elizabeth, is appointed housemaid; her elder brother, Paul, the butler. While Charlie, the youngest of the group, is appointed to position of bootboy.

When Burton Crane arrives from the North, accompanied by Mrs. Faulkner and her daughter, and Crane's attorney, Tucker, they find the staff of servants to possess so many methods of behavior out of the ordinary, that amusing complications begin to arise at once.

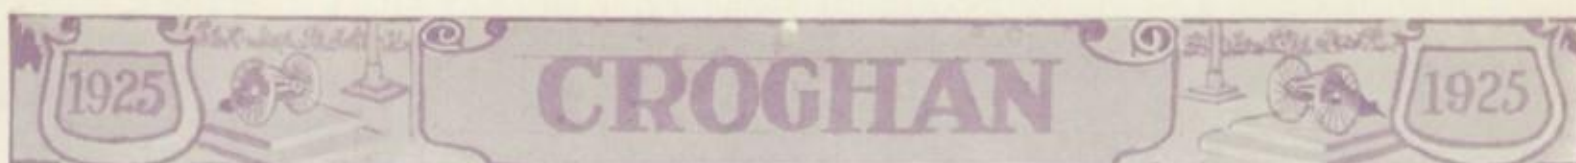

Olivia's charm and beauty impress Crane above everything else. A merry story continues through a maze of delightful incidents until the real identity of the heroine is finally disclosed, but not until Crane has professed his love for the charming cook, and the play ends with the brightest prospects of happiness for these two young people.

"ONCE IN A BLUE MOON"

After an absence of four years at college, Bob Harrington is expected to return to the home of his foster Aunt, Mrs. Mary Montgomery, whose daughter, Sylvia, was his boyhood sweetheart. Having fallen in love with another girl at college, he sends his chum, George Taylor, who closely resembles him, to substitute for him at the week-end party. George has always been anxious to meet Sylvia, whose picture greatly attracts him. He arrives amid preparations for a Spanish Fiesta, and finds Sylvia more charming than her photograph.

Unexpected guests in the persons of Sir Percival Chetwood and Monsieur Rene Le Mon arrive and are welcomed as distinguished noblemen by Mrs. Montgomery, and are invited to remain for the festivities.

That night, while the guests are dancing, a robbery takes place, and suspicion is turned on George, who is forced to disclose his identity. Things look dark for him until the guilty parties are brought to justice. A telegram from the real "Bob" announcing his marriage leaves George free to finish the story in the approved fashion.

Orchestra

The Orchestra is quite a popular thing around the Fremont High School, especially at the High dances, which were given about every two weeks during the winter. Although the members of the orchestra are mostly Seniors this year, there is some good talent among the lower classes which ought to keep a High orchestra going forever.

This is the first time in the history of the High School that the orchestra has played for the Operatta, the Senior Class Play, and the Baccalaureate and the Commencement exercises.

Members of the orcheztra are: Todd G. Simon, Director; Marian Van Doren; Delphin Gibbs; Grant Rinehart; Walter Nickel; Robert Sackett; Walter Smith; Jack O'Farrell, Bud Finch; Harold Otto; Robert Leonard; Norman Wolfe.

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Girls' Glee Club

For many years the Girls' Glee Club of Fremont has held a prominent place among the various organizations of the school. Under the capable direction of Mrs. Elsie Greene Datesman they presented a program March 26, in the High School Auditorium, consisting of songs, violin solos, and piano duets. By the co-operation of the girls and under the splendid leadership of their instructor the programme was declared a huge success. As a reward for their enthusiastic efforts the girls were given gold pins.

THE BAND

Band

One of our most famous Hi organizations is our band, under the leadership of Todd G. Simon. Our band placed among the first in the State Hi School band concert at Fostoria. This year it travels to Akron, where it expects to place first or second. During the last year it has made numerous appearances at home, chief among them was its concert in February. The band made a very fine appearance, displaying extraordinary talent.

Football Season of 1925

Fremont High opened season of 1925 in good style. Coach Taylor finding his men in good condition on his arrival, started them out with real workouts. And on September 20, found them with eleven lettermen on field to open first game of longest and hardest schedule of Fremont History.

Fremont.....	2
Lima South	12

This game was more of practice game and being our first we were defeated by a small score, Lima having played two games previously. Coach trying out many men in this game. Ken Hawk also opened his football career by running ends in good style and proved himself to be of high caliber.

Fremont.....18
Marion..... 2

On September 27, Fremont journeyed to Marion to play the large and powerful Marion hopes. Fremont outplayed them in all departments of the game, scoring almost at will. Coach Taylor saving most of his men for on-coming first league game. Reardon, Nickles, Lerch, Hawk, Schneider and rest of the team showed their playing ability.

Fremont..... 0
Lorain.....13

The first league game of the season was looked upon through league circles as the one deciding game of the pennant race. Lorain coming to Fremont featuring the large Pincura, the 280-pound guard who was opposed by Reardon, Siler and McCarthy being held useless. The forepart of game was in Lorain's favor, but in last half Fremont showed great form by fighting Lorain to a standstill. The whole team played great football in this game, and brought great crowds to games thereafter.

Fremont.....13
Norwalk..... 0

October 11, found Fremont on its way to Norwalk to play its second league game which was an uninteresting game to watch from the sidelines, but a hard played battle on the field. The afternoon being very warm, brought out the hardest playing of the whole team. This game turned out to be a feather in Fremont's hat, and encouraged the boys to fight much harder in the future games and showed the backers that we had a powerful driving line and a plunging backfield.

Fremont.....18
Bowling Green..... 0

October 18, another wonderful football game and demonstration, Fremont getting revenge for defeat of two previous years. The last part of game being played with subs who will represent Fremont on the football field in 1926. Cousin Bauman played a good game of football, catching a pass for a 30 yard gain.

Fremont.....25
Elyria..... 7

October 25 found Fremont again journeying away from home to spill the once mighty Elyria eleven. This game turned out to be the highest score game of season, we defeating Elyria 25-7 by getting the jump on them from start of game. All fellows played heads up football and outclassed Elyria in all stages of the game. In this game one of Fremont's powerful tackles, Zink, was injured, but recovered in time for Sandusky game. Features of this game were pass intercepted by Schneider and wonderful tackling of ends. Captain Lerch also played one of his old style games, leading team in great victory.

Fremont.....22
Bellevue..... 0

November 1, Bellevue being cellar team of league, put a scare into Fremont's camp by holding them to three points the first three quarters of the game, after which the old driving line again settled down to work, and enabled the backfield to score three touchdowns in the last quarter.

Sandusky.....	0

On November 8, Fremont played their old rivals, Sandusky, at Sandusky. The airal attack of Sandusky did not amount to much in this game, although several large gains where the cause of it Fremont put the backs to it. Weather being very cold made the road to victory hard going, and we were held to a scoreless tie. Many injuries took place this game, and Hugh's quarterback for Fremont, was replaced by Weed Wingard, a player of good ability, but handicapped, drove the team up field several times but we were unable to score. Stan Hawk, brother to Ken, played his best game of season and got away with several large gains.

Fremont.....	7
Oberlin.....	20

On November 15, Fremont played its last game, being defeated by Oberlin, although making 20 first downs to Oberlin's 4. Was unable to win because of penalties and flukes.

This ended the season of 1925, and also ended the football careers of Lerch, Herman Schneider, Nickles, Reardon, Stan Hawk, Pash, Fox, Bauman and Ellsworth Schneider.

In our season we had breaks good and bad, and also had fine players. Captain Lerch, high score man of league, was picked as all league Fullback; Schneider, Zink, Reardon and Kenneth Hawk were also given places either on first or second teams.

Track for 1925

Prospects for a winning track team for this spring are bright, especially in the track events. With Russell and Wallace in the sprints, Druckenmiller and Tucker in the 440, Hawk in the hurdles, high jump, and pole-vault, Wingard in the pole-vault and broad jump, it is reasonable to expect Fremont High to garner quite a few points in these events. Besides McCarthy, Lance and Pence are expected to come through in the weight events.

A class meet is to be held sometime the forepart of May. The league meet at Oberlin will be held June 6. Efforts are being made to schedule dual meets for May.

1925 BASEBALL BOYS

Baseball '24

Baseball, after four years' absence from Fremont Hi, started out with a bang.

The boys turned out in fine style and Fremont's hopes soared sky high at the prospect of turning out such an excellent team.

Coach Weiler experienced great difficulty in choosing his "nine" from the hosts of boys at hand. They turned out well with also a lot of "pep."

The F. H. S. field was built up in the back of Stamm School by loyal supporters of the team, which proved to be a prominent place every night after school, and also at games, which was held then, all through the season.

The graduation of Arden Overmyer, "Duke" Johannsen, and Feichter are great losses to the team of '25, because they held down responsible positions. Next year we have the following who will be eligible for the team of '25. They are "Chuck" Overmyer, "Butch" Bowers, "Al" Foos, "Hotch" Fox, "Nick" Nickle, "Weed" Wingard, Rhinehart, "Ollie" Zink, "Ken" Hawk, "Don" Pasch. There will be a number of candidates who will fill the positions of those who graduated. The following was the lineup for the season of '24:

Johannson, R. F.	A. Overmyer, 2nd	Zink, 1st
R. Overmyer, C. F.	Bowers, S. S.	Fox, C.
Nickles, L. F.	A. Foos, 3rd	Pasch, P.

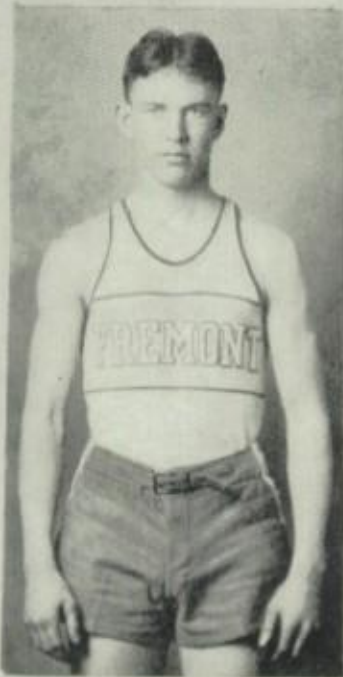

UTILITY

Wingard, P.	Feichter, C.
Rinehart, P.	K. Hawk, C. F.

At the starting of the season Rinehart and Feichter were the batterys, but as the season progressed "Big Don" Pasch and "Hotch" Fox got the fever for baseball so they came out and showed their stuff. We could not have had a more heady ball player than Pasch. Although Captain Hotch Fox was a "whiz" behind the plate.

Basketball Season of 1925

Basketball prospects were considered good, we having 4 lettermen back from the previous year. The team started out by defeating the Faculty 10-6. Opening the gates to the new gym Fremont officially dedicated their new gym by defeating their strong St. Joe's team the following Friday 16-15. This was a surprise victory, as St. Joe's had won four games before playing us. Prospects for the league season looked good. We opened our league season by playing Elyria, who defeated us in a hard fast game 13-22.

Our next game was against league champions, Lorain, on Lorain's floor. Fremont here played one of their best games of the year, and the result was one of the best games of the league season. Lorain winning in the last two minutes by two long Toms. The defensive ability of Weed Wingard stood out.

Fremont next played Norwalk, losing to the tune of 22-28, through the ability of Norwalk from foul line. Fremont was weakened by the absence of Schneider. Although Reardon, playing his first game, flashed out in good form. The next, Fremont was defeated by St. Joe's on their own floor 19-11, and second game of city championship. Then came the one real bright spot in our season, we winning our first league game in three years. The team showed real basketball ability in this game, Zink, Wingard and Bowers carrying the offence. Foos and Fangboner who played their first game, held the Bellevue forwards powerless.

The Sandusky (Blue Devils), who were burning up the league, defeated us 44-20. Wingard, Fremont's star forward, and acting captain, was out due to injuries.

We next played Oberlin, Clyde, Galion and Port Clinton, and lost these games, although weakened by the loss of Zink, who withdrew from the team for unknown reasons.

The last game of the season for City Championship with St. Joe's was played March 20th in St. Joe's hall, they having won toss of the coin. St. Joe's were unbeatable all season on their home floor, and this game was no exception, defeating Fremont before a large crowd 18-36.

This ended the basketball career of Wingard, Schneider, Smith and Reardon.

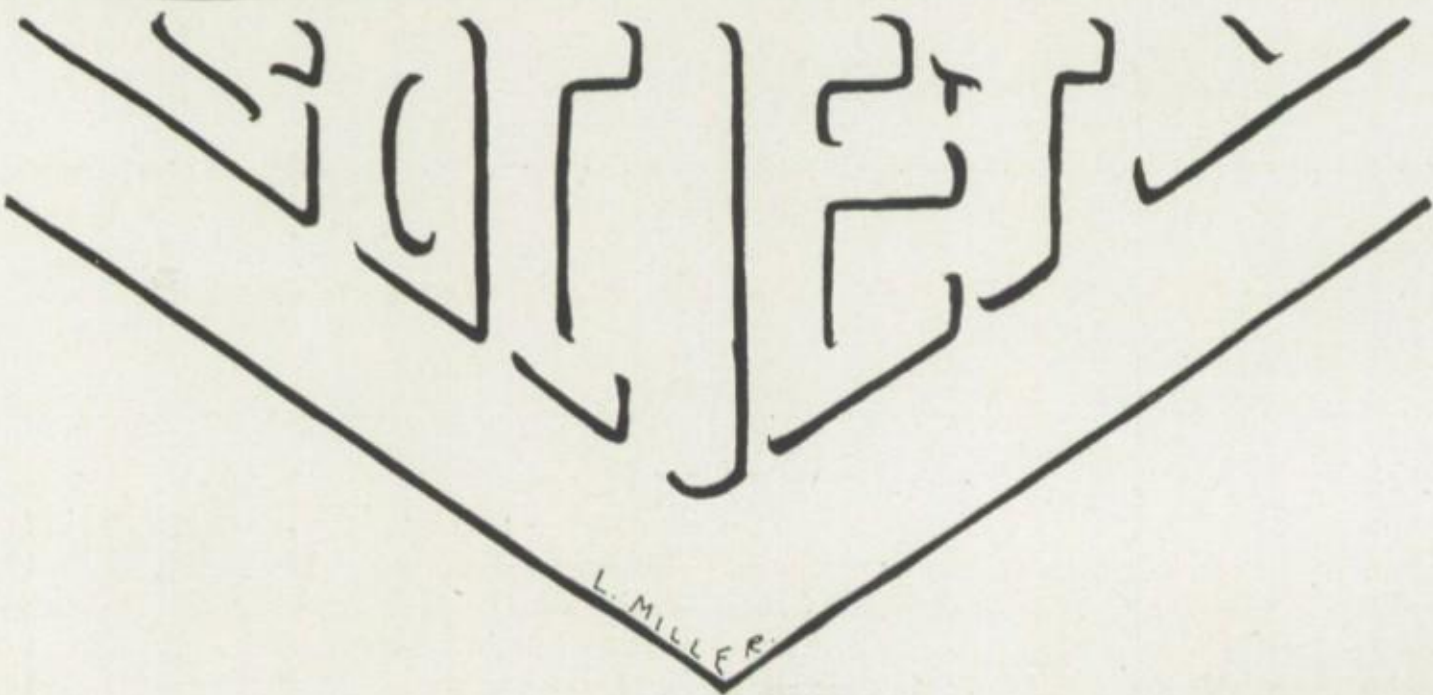

The prospects of the oncoming season are good, having Foos, Fangboner, Hawk and Bowers back we look for these boys to get some revenge for us.

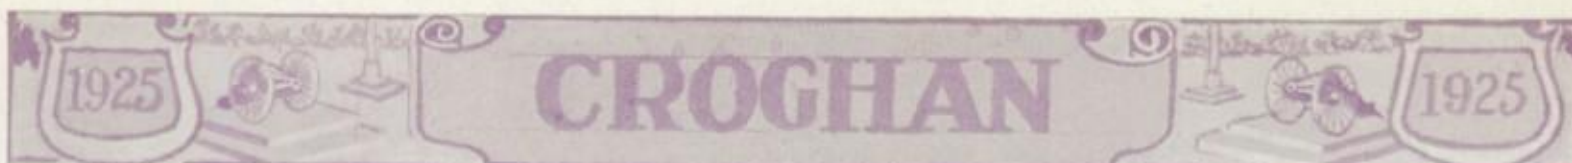

Alice Longanbach, Doris Beebe, Irma Lorenzen, Grace Hirt, Lillian Karlowitz, Helen Rowe, Ruth Miller, Ione Wood, Coach Chilson.

SEVENTH GRADE CANTATA

On May 1st, one hundred and fifty boys and girls of the Seventh Grade gave a very picturesque two-part cantata, "Childhood of Hiawatha." The cantata was preceded by a piano duet by Helen Pasch and Rosamund Walton. In eleven picturesque choruses they gave the childhood of the well known Indian hero. The text of the cantata was taken from Longfellow's "Hiawatha." Although this is the first time that Junior Hi has put on a musical entertainment they show great promise for the future. The cantata was directed by Mrs. Elsie Datesman with Miss Lucille Lucas, a seventh Grade pupil, accompanying.

CROGHAN CARNIVAL

This Carnival given April 1, to raise money for the Croghan, aroused more interest among the students than any other affair and a neat sum was made.

Everyone worked hard and long completing the plans and making the last minute changes, but our labors were rewarded.

The entertainments consisted of a Minstrel Show, Basketball Game, Spook Room, Play Ground, Gaming, etc., also the Tea Room, and the stands in the halls afforded eats. At the close of the evening dancing was enjoyed by the High School pupils. Door prizes were given at all events.

CROGHAN TOURNAMENT

The Croghan Tournament was another affair to make money for the Croghan. It was backed by the Senior Class, but given by Junior High. Prizes were awarded here to the boy and girl scoring the most points in athletic stunts. Two Freshmen, Ione Wood and Kenneth Hawk, carried off the big honors, but other prizes were awarded, too.

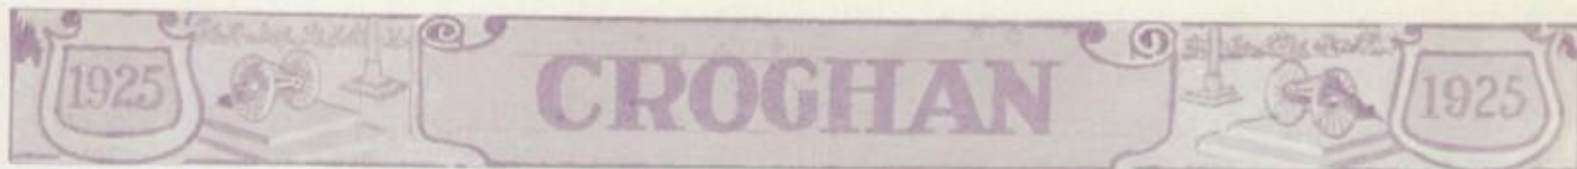

Society

SENIOR CLASS PARTY

The round of Class Parties was started in January, when the Senior Class gave a banquet, which nearly all the Seniors and Senior Teachers attended. A delicious dinner was served at which the teachers and a few Seniors gave toasts. After the banquet a basketball game was enjoyed in the new gym. The rest of the evening was spent at cards and other diversions.

Although this banquet proved to be a success, our last banquet promises to be much better.

CLASS OF '28

As soon as we returned in the fall of 1924 we were considered a part of the High School. Although we are the youngest and the largest class, we cause little disturbance in the building. We try to co-operate with one another and help our class by doing whatever seems best.

During the year of 1925, after we became acquainted with the new pupils and the large addition to the school, we began to do better in our studies. Most of our pupils received high grades and many gained admittance to the Ninety Club. We still have three more years in our High School career which we will use to the best of our ability.

CLASS OF '29

Two years ago a selected group of sturdy noisemakers and somewhat studiously inclined students entered Junior Hi, and now after our efforts we have landed in the Eighth Grade. It was a stormy way and we surely have had our ups and downs. Public sentiment was slowly killed and we settled down to facts (slower yet).

Next year will be a repetition, but with better intentions. We are due in or before '29 so watch our smoke.

CLASS OF '30

We, the Class of '30, have only been under the High School system for one short, pleasant year. Although we have seemed a little wild and rather lost, in a few more years we will be accustomed to the regular grind. We hope to graduate as one of the biggest and finest classes that ever left Fremont High.

JOKES

Cheerleader (to girls' cheering section): "Let's go girls! Show'em you're purple and white supporters."

Dirty: "Did you see the nasty look that bum just gave me?"

Bertie: "Aw, she didn't give it to yuh, yuh, had it all morning."

Love may make the world go round, but so does a sock in the jaw.

There was a young star named Celectos,
Whose applause after dancing was tremendous,
She danced and she tripped,
'Till her shoulder strap slipped,
And they had to ring down the asbestos.

Juilet: "What a pity it is that handsome men are always conceited."

Romeo: "Not always, little girl, I'm not."

Bob N.: "I've lost a lot of weight this winter."

Stan: "I don't see it."

Bob: "Why no, how could you, I've lost it."

Mr. Steen: "All men descended from monkeys. Am I right, Don?"

Don, bored: "Yah, I guess so, but who kicked the ladder out from under you?"

He: "You look like Helen Brown."

She: "Thank you! I look even worse in white."

Don P.: "Give me an Arrow Collar."

Clerk: "Well, how narrow?"

Miss Lutz: "Does anyone in the class know what the Sherman Act was?"

Lease: "Marching thru Georgia."

Bud B.: "I got London over my radio last night."

Gordon C.: "That's nothing, I got chilly over the register."

Female Admirer: "My goodness, if those are running trunks I would hate to see a young man in suit-cases."

Mr. Clark: "Why are you late to school this morning?"

Marie N.: "Why, the bells rang before I got here."

Mrs. Datesman (in music): "A little more volume, please; open your mouth wide and throw yourself into it."

Bob M.: "I had a funny experience last night."

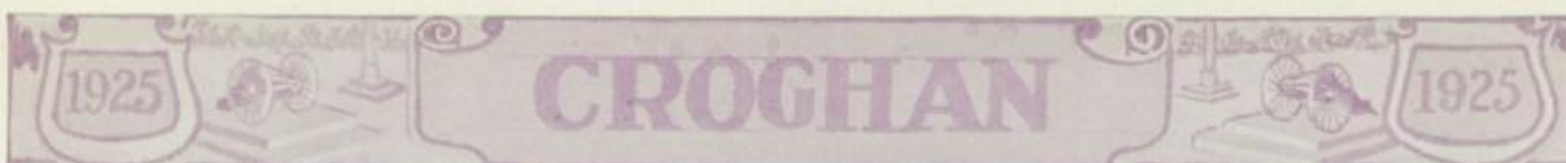

Harry K.: "How so?"

Bob M.: "Well, when I went to bed, the bed was in the room, and when I woke up it was in the morning."

Policeman (producing note book): "Name, please."

Leola M.: "Alogsiurs Alastiat Cyprian."

Policeman (putting away note book): "Well, don't let me catch you again."

AN ODE TO AN APPLE PIE

Under the crust of the old apple pie
There is something for both you and I.
It may be a hair, that the cook left there,
Or it may be a fat, juicy fly.
It may be an old rusty nail;
Or a piece of the pussy cat's tail.
But whatever it be,
There is something for me
'Neath the crust of the old apple pie.

'Twas not an act of chivalry
Nor yet the fear of scorn;
He offered her his street-car seat
To keep her off his corn.

Mr. Laub (rapping on desk): "Order, people, order!"

Humpy (just awakening): "Ham sandwich and a cup of coffee."

Boarding House Lady: "Do you want a room?"

Hotch F.: "No, I want to disguise myself as a banana and sleep in the fruit dish."

Miss Robinson: "Your last paper was very difficult to read. Your work should be written so that the most ignorant will be able to understand it."

Wingard: "Yes, ma'am. What part didn't you understand?"

Frances: "Fat and I had a falling out last night."

Margaret: "Quarrel much?"

Frances: "No, the swing broke."

Stan: "Where's the funny paper?"

Dan: "Funny paper? Today ain't Sunday. I told you not to take a bath last night."

The tall proud girl turned haughtily to the white robed figure.

"Have you no heart?" she asked in a low tone.

"No," was the bitter reply.

"Well, give me 10 cents worth of liver."

"What's George doing now?"

"Film business."

"Actor?"

"No, tooth paste."

PASS THE POISON, PLEASE

I gotta girl
But she's a flop.
Speaks Italian,
High hat wop.
Raves about this
Russian drama.
Don't like neckin'——
I do, dammer!

Mr. Jones: "Why so depressed, Sam?"
Sam K.: "The horrible cost of living, old chap. Constant bills for material, paint and shingling."
Mr. Jones: "Are you building?"
Sam K.: "No, a daughter."

Mommy: "Be you all sneezing, honey?"
Rastus: "No, ah ain't sneezing honey, ah's sneezin' sneeze. What you all think ma nose is, a bee hive?"

IN A FRESHMAN'S EYES

A Senior stood on a railroad track,
The train was coming fast,
The train got off the railroad track
And let the Senior pass.

UPSIDE DOWN STUFF

Mr. Laub is quite absent-minded;
One night when he crawled into bed
He laid both his feet on the pillow
And kicked at the sheets with his head.

THE AYES HAVE IT

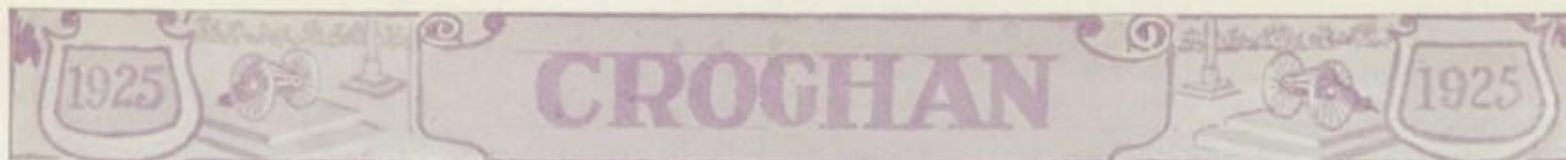

Blue eyes mean you're true;
Grey mean you're gracious;
But black eyes merely mean you're blue
In several other places.

If flies are flies
Because they fly;
And fleas are fleas
Because they flee.
Then bees are bees
Because they be.

Senior: "You should try to change your style of dancing."
Junior: "How?"
Senior: "You might step on my left foot occasionally."

SOME SCIENTIFIC DEFINITIONS

Earth—A solid substance much desired by the sea sick.
Cauliflower—A cabbage with a college education.
Kiss—Nothing divided by two.
Hug—A roundabout way of expressing affection.

Mr. Steen: "Name a composition with which you are familiar that contains iron."
A Voice from back of room: "Raisins."

Elizabeth: "Why is an ill-fitting suit like a green watermellon?"

Esther: "Don't know."

Elizabeth: "One isn't cut to fit, and the other isn't fit to cut."

Jim: "Who was the nifty dame I saw you with last night?"

Jam: "Didn't you know her?"

Jim: "No, who was she?"

Jam: "Your sister."

"Well, I'll be darned," muttered the sock, as it was lifted from the sewing basket.

Frances: "Why is it, Roberta, that you never wear calico?"

Roberta: "I hate to see myself in print."

Sunday School Teacher: "What does the story of Jonah and the whale teach us?"

Gordon: "That you can't keep a good man down."

Mr. Laub: "Where has my ploygon?"

Eleanor: "Up the geometree!"

Mr. Steen: "Every day we breathe oxygen. Now, Wilbur, what do we breath at night?"

Web Reardon: "Nitrogen."

ODD ACCIDENTS

I saw a cowslip through a fence,
A horse fly in the store;
I saw a board walk up the street;
A stone step by the door.

I saw a mill race up the road,
A morning break the gloom.
I saw a night fall on the lawn;
A clock run in a room.

I saw a peanut stand up high;
A sardine box in town.
I saw a bed spring at the gate;
And ink stand on the ground.

"Now, tell us about it—why did you steal the purse?"

"Your Honor, I won't deceive you. I was ill and I thot the change would do me good."

"Why did you put quotation marks at the first and last of this exam paper?"

"I was quoting the guy in front of me."

Miss Robinson: "Which is correct: a herd of camels or a drove of camels?"

Joe H.: "I always thought they came in packages."

Mr. Weiler: "I will use my hat to represent the planet of Mars. Is there any question before I go on?"

Hank B.: "Yes, is Mars inhabited?"

Capt.: "Boys, the boat is sinking. Is there anyone here who knows how to pray?"

Parson (eagerly): "I do."

Capt.: "All right, you pray; the rest of us will put on life belts. We're one shy."

Traffic Cop: "What's the idea, bawling up traffic? Why don't you use your noodle?"

Flapper: "Didn't know the car had one."

A flapper is one who bobs her hair, powders her nose and says: "Clothes, I'm going down town. If you want to come along, hang on."

Spot: "I can't see my hand in front of my face."

Fat Smith: "Good heavens, whazza matter?"

Spot: "Tisn't there, fool."

Nagging Wife: "Is everything shut up for the night, John?"

Mr. Hennpeck: "That depends on you; everything else is."

Grandpa Fox: "Well, well, and what are you going to be when you grow up?"

Baby Fox: "A necker."

The Disconsolate One: "I wish I were dead."

The Consoler: "Why, can't you marry her—or did you?"

Voice over the phone: "Are you the lady that washes?"

"No, I am not."

Voice over the phone: "You dirty thing."

Teacher: "Howard, give a sentence using the word 'sate'."

Howard: "I took Alice to a picnic last summer and I'll sate quite a lot."

THE MAKUDOLLAR.

"What can I do to avoid falling hair?"

"Jump out of the way."

"Mary, I'm not going to have you reading novels on Sunday."

"But, Granny, this one's all right. It's about a girl who was engaged to three clergymen at once."

"How do they ever get clean after a game?"

"What do you suppose the scrub team is for?"

The "shingle bob" probably got its name from being so close to the wood.

Bus: "I see Gerald has a job as a lather, they claim he's the only fellow using two hammers."

Ted: "Where did he get his experience?"

Bus: "He used to be a xylophone player."

Harry: "Did you ever meet a man whose touch seemed to thrill every fiber of your being?"

Margaret: "Oh, yes, once—the dentist."

"Us women," said the suffrage leader, "can do anything you men can."

"Yeah," sneered the cynic, "let's see you grow a beard."

Lecturer: "What have any of you done to save our timber?"

Voice in the rear: "I shot a woodpecker once."

Senior: "What do you think of a fellow that goes horse-back riding at midnight and rides all night?"

Miss Lutz: "I should think he was crazy! Who did that?"

Senior: "Paul Revere."

H. Bauman (after guest has rung for ten minutes): "Did you ring, sir?"

Guest: "H—no; I was tolling; I thought you were dead."

Hotch F.: "We had a wild lunch last night."

Don P.: "What did you have?"

Hotch: "Animal crackers."

John McCarthy (at box office): "Two tickets, please."

Ticket Seller: "What date?"

John (absently): "Mary."

Conductor: "I've been on this train seven years."

Dingo: "That so? Where did you get on?"

Lavora (in chemistry): "What's a flash?"

Roberta L.: "Oh, a flask is something you carry on your hip."

Miss Sheldon: "What is the contribution of the Middle Ages to modern college life?"

H. Fox: "Chaperones."

Mrs. Datesman (in music class): "What are pauses?"

Pupil: "They grow on cats."

A Hi School teacher wrote, "Please wash," on the black board, and the Janitor took his bath before Saturday.

Teacher (meeting class for first time): "And on this paper I want your names, not your signatures."

"Well, I'll be dammed," said the stream, as the fat man fell in the middle.

Miss Robinson: "Define trickle."
 Fat: "To run slowly."
 Miss R.: "Define anecdote."
 Fat: "A short funny tale."
 Miss R.: "Now, use them both in a sentence."
 Fat: "The dog trickled down the street with a can tied to its anecdote."

Bess and I went swimming
In the rapid Rapidan;
I wore no clothes to speak of—
Bess—wore a coat of tan.

Now, prudes, don't get excited
And start a wagging tongue,
For I am nearly forty
And Bess is rather young.

"That makes it worse!" you clamor;
Now do not eat me up,
For I'm a staid old fellow
And Bess—is just my pup.

Bob: "What is that rasping noise in the office?"
Delphin: "Oh, I guess somebody's filing a complaint."

Stan: "Harry ate something that poisoned him."
Hank: "Croquette?"
Stan: "Not yet, but he's very ill."

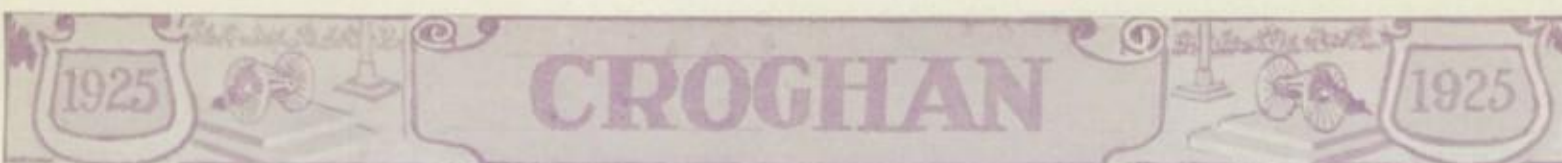

Lucille: "Why do they put cornmeal on the dance floor?"
Harry: "To make the chickens feel at home."

Herman: "I'm working very hard to get ahead."
Urban: "You need one."

Mr. Steen: "What is the best conductor of electricity?"
Junior: "Why—er——"
Mr. Steen: "Right, and what is the standard for meaning electricity?"
Junior: "The what, sir?"
Mr. Steen: "A very good recitation."

HIAWATHA

By the shores of Cuticura,
By the sparkling Pluto Water,
Lived the prophylactic Chicklet,
Danderine, dair Chevrolet's daughter;
She was loved by Instant Postum,
Son of Sunkist and Victrola,
Heir apparent to the Mazda,
Of the tribe of Cocoa Cola.
Through the Tanlac strolled the lovers,
Through the Shredded Wheat they wandered;
"Lovely little Wrigley Chiclet
Were the fairy words of Postum.
"No Fire Fighter can quench the fire,
Nor can Aspirin still the heartache."
"Oh, my Prest-o-lite desire,
Let us marry, little Djer-Kiss."

Sweet Young Thing: "Will your charge a loaf of bread for me?"

Rough Clerk: "Sorry, lady, this is a grocery store, not a battery shop."

"What makes your car so damp?"

"Because there is so much due on it."

Senior: "It's all over the Campus!"

Freshie: "What?"

Senior: "Why, the grass, little one."

Freshie: "Could you give me a definition for faculty?"

Senior: "Yes, they are some teachers who assist the Seniors in running the school."

Lavora: "Can't go. I must darn my stockings; they are on my mind."

Mary: "Take them off and come along."

Miss Lutz: "Recite your History lesson."

Judy: "Aw, let history repeat itself."

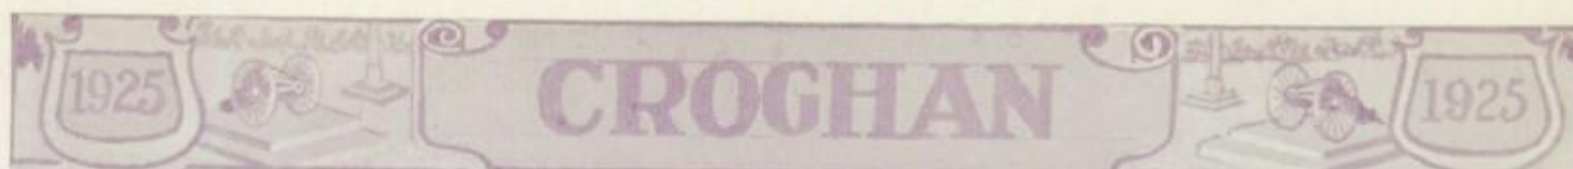

Mildred Skilliter: "What time does the four o'clock train leave?"

I'm popular while they're dancing,
I've a lot of vim and pep.
The girls all seem to want me there,
I've a fairly decent rep.

But when the dance is over,
I'm left alone and grim,
'Cause I'm the old piano
On the platform in the gym.

Mr. Steen: "What kind of energy does coal have?"

Urban: "Black."

And made the paper weight.

Rex Clarke: "This coffee tastes like mud."
Waiter: "Yes, sir, it was ground this morning."

"O, would I were a bird," she sang,
And each disgusted one
Who heard her thought this wicked thought,
"O, would I were a gun,"

Mr. Weiler (to students in back of room): "Can you all hear me back there?"
Chorus from back row: "No, sir."

Steno: "That's all right. Just stick it under the chair and I'll get it as I go out."

Dorothy: "Don't you think that my apartment is much nicer than Alice's?"
Mildred: "Tut, tut, Dorothy, it's bad form to match quarters."

He squeezed her in the dark and kissed her
And for a moment bliss was his.
"Excuse me, but I thought it was my sister,"
He said. She smiled and cooed, "It is."

Young Poet: Why, my dear man, right now my poetry is being read by twice as many people as before.

Old Poet: So you went and got married, did you?

Miss Robinson: (trying out students for class play). Have you had any experience?

Don: Yes, I had my leg in a cast once.

Wife: Watts the meter? Wire you insulate?

Hubby: I was shocked by a couple of vamperes.

If you are studying French and think it is hard, read the following and rejoice. Three Frenchmen were studying a volume of Shakespeare in their own tongue, their task being to render portions of it into English. When they came to Hamlet's soliloquy, "To be or not to be" their respective translations were as follows:

1. "To was or not to am."
2. "To were or is to not."
3. "To should or not to will."

BANK ORGANIZATION

The Fremont High School Bank was opened with student officers on November 18, 1924.

Every Tuesday faculty and students present bank books and deposits at their respective windows in the school bank. At the close of the banking period the money is deposited in a local bank by the officials of the school bank, these officials being pupils in the senior class in the high School.

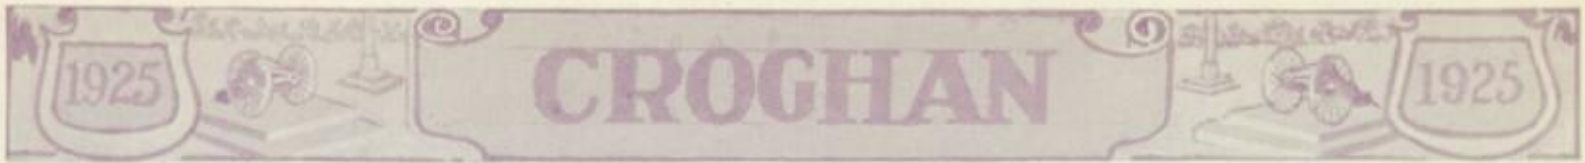

Banking, of course, is only one part of the special accounting training given the Seniors of this school.

AU REVOIR

Soon from these halls of learning
Where we've worked and toiled in tears—
We will pass and with great longing
Look back from other years.

We have struggled with History and Latin,
We've battled with poetry and prose;
We've had to fight with all our might,
As I am sure each one of us knows.

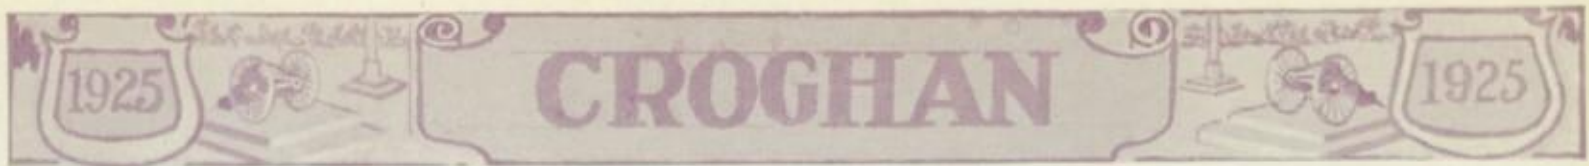

Our work, absurd, at times it seems,
But always for the best—
And now we are to graduate
And take places with the rest.

So let us pause in retrospect,
That we not lag behind—
For all this work is knowledge
To benefit mankind.

And when we leave these portals
As into life we pass;
We'll always remember the High School,
And especially our own dear class.

To a large and full posterity
We leave a lingering word—
"Do all that you can, while you can, folks."
And you'll tread a happy road.

A. SENIOR.

SCHOOL DAYS

Our school days are over,
Our hearts fill with joy;
Vacation spells freedom
For each girl and boy.

Through all kinds of weather,
Both sunshine and rain,
We've toiled together
Our credits to gain.

All records we've broken
For mischief and fun;
Yet many will tell us
We've only begun.

We've sat up till midnight
To battle with books;
But all we could see
Were the teachers' cross looks.

When we answered some questions,
They surely would smile;
But the length of their lessons
Would reach for a mile.

But for all that, we loved them,
For well did we know
They had traveled the same path,
Long, long ago.

Our teachers we've tried,
I suppose to extremes;
But always for youngsters,
Will school be what it seems.

But for all of the trials
School brings in its wake,
The pleasures will balance them,
I'm ready to state.

So though we are through
At Old Fremont High,
To some far away college,
Our thoughts surely will fly.

And with these words as our motto,
Life's races we'll run;
And find strength and courage.
In "Not finished, only begun."

BERNICE IMMEL.
